Description

Fine quality antique Edwardian mahogany duet piano stool in lovely original condition & newly re-upholstered in a cream linen fabric. This stool has some fine inlays of many different exotic woods on the back & front. In fact it looks the same from both sides. It has turned handles on the sides & sits on elegant tapered legs, with spade end feet. There is a bit of old wear showing on the edges of the handle supports, but everything is polished in nicely & it's structurally sound. As you can see from the images, there is plenty of storage under the seat. Although designed for use with a piano, this stool could have plenty of other uses in the home. Length - 39", 99 cm Depth - 13.7", 30 cm Height - 22.3", 57 cm Seat height - 20", 51 cm
