Description

This is a super pair of antique Victorian sterling silver 3 piece condiment/cruet sets in stands. The two stands and salts are both hallmarked for London 1859 with the silversmiths marks for Edward & John Barnard and the peppers and mustards are hallmarked for Birmingham 1859 with the silversmiths marks for Henry Manton - both the spoons are hallmarked for Birmingham 1949 with the makers mark for Robert Pringle so these have obviously been added at a later date. Each bottle stands 3" (8 cms) tall and the stand itself measures 4" (10 cms) across the base x 2 1/4" (5.5 cms) tall to the top of the handle. It's all in super condition with no damage and no engravings or monograms - a couple of the hallmarks are slightly rubbed. Lovely item and perfectly usable today and most unusual to have a pair dated so early. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
