Description

Early C19th Regency period gilt-wood 3-plate over-mantel mirror. Good compact-scale classically-decorated mirror in exceptional original condition . Central circular hand-bevelled plate with garlanded surround and 'sun ray' borders, flanked by rectangular bevelled mirror plates. Flat fluted pilaster uprights with Corinthian capital tops , classical flower-design motifs dividing the 3-panel frieze decorated with classical figures around a central Temple . The stepped cornice with applied sphere decoration , 'lambs-tongue' carving beneath a 'rope-twist ' and bead moulding and a flat top . Good original gilded finish of 'soft', aged patina , with some sympathetic wear showing traces of pink/red ground. Clean , silvered plates to the mirrors. Original back , with re-papered finish . A good classically-inspired mirror which would bring style and light to a period room setting. W (extreme) 56" H 38" Central mirror 21" Dia. Side plates 8" x 25" England c.1810
