Description

GILLOWS of LANCASTER: a very fine and impressive early 19th century rosewood circular DINING or BREAKFAST TABLE by this highly regarded firm of cabinetmakers. In lovely condition, this good table features a beautifully figured top (54ins diameter) tilting and locking upwards if required. It is supported on a typical Gillows swelling hexagonal column with applied ogee mouldings, leading to the triform base and compressed bun feet with original concealed castors. A lovely table of superb quality, eminently practical and capable of seating up to eight. 54ins (137cms) diameter.
