Description

This is a 19th century Dutch silver caddy measuring 5" (13 cms) tall to top of the pull-off lid, with the base measuring 3" (7.5 cms) x 2" (5.5 cms). The body is fully decorated with figures and animals in pastoral scenes and the lid has hunters on horseback chasing deer. It is superb condition with no faults and no evidence of repair, and dates from c 1880. On the bottom it has the Lion mark with the Number 2 representing silver purity of 833, plus it has the maker's mark MC and on the lid there is the Minerva head mark with an M which signifies it was hallmarked in Schoonhoven. It's a lovely caddy, great condition and very attractive with a female figure topping the lid - it weighs 138 grams. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
