Description

Set of 8 late C19th Georgian design Chippendale-style mahogany dining chairs . Comprising of 6 single and a pair of carver/armchairs , good quality set of mid C18th-style dining chairs. Well-carved frames with interlaced splat-backs of gothic inspiration with acanthus leaf decoration below a serpentine carved top-rail with acanthus carved shoulders. The seat rails with lower gadrooned carved edges , and raised on boldly-carved cabriole legs, heavily carved knees, terminating in a 'claw-and-ball' foot. The drop-in seats upholstered in their original tan leather, with some marks and staining, worn but servicable. Good grade of mahogany which has achieved a pleasing rich patina, with minor sun fading. A generously proportioned and comfortable set of chairs. Excellent condition with no breaks or repairs. H(back/single) 38" W (seat/single) 22" H(back/armchair) 40" H(back/armchair) 24" England c.1890
