Description

Early C19th Regency period rosewood open 'dwarf' bookcase. Smart double-size rosewood bookcase fitted with 2 adjustable shelves mounted on 'sawtooth' ladder-racking. The top fitted with 3/4 gallery, whilst all edges and shelves have split-reel 'knulled' mouldings. Raised upon acanthus-leaf carved scroll feet to the front with deep moulded edge, the rear fitted with turned bun feet. The shelves and interior have all benefited from well-executed 'faux rosewood' grained paint-work decoration. Good capacity for both volumes of books and objects. A practical and decorative piece of period furniture. Excellent original condition throughout, no cracks, damage or repairs. A well-chosen tightly-grained grade of rosewood which has achieved a good deep patina. Original polish and finish, cleaned and waxed ready to use. W 55" W(inc. feet) 60" H 38" D 13" England c.1820
