Description

Victorian mahogany chest of drawers. This chest is DARKER than the images show. Go to www.hingstons-antiques.co.uk to watch a video of this to give a better indication of its colour. This Victorian mahogany chest of drawers is so useful for today's lifestyle. Compact and with so much storage. It is of a rich mahogany colour and is fitted with its original turned mahogany knob handles. This type of handle makes it very easy and quick to access the drawers. Cleverly designed to keep its balance to look at. The bottom drawer is disguised to look part of the gentle graduation, when in fact it also has the plinth integrated in it to increase the capacity. This chest of drawers has been totally re-polished and restored in our workshop. We do not use any lacquers or spray finishes, just traditional polishing by hand. 106cms wide 51cms deep 105cms high
