Description

Rare C19th olive-wood pedestal table from the Holy Land with Hebrew ink inscriptions. Finely figured olive-wood segmented veneered cross-banded top with central Hebrew black ink inscription translating as "Jerusalem". The octagonal 'end grain' moulded-edge top with black ink inscriptions in four opposing corners probably denoting the points of geographical interest, thought to include Chevron, Yarden , and Har Hazaytim . Raised upon a finely-made turned and "Solomonic" twist column , onto a tri-form concave-sided platform base with turned bun feet under. The whole constructed from finely selected olive-wood timber from the Holy Land. Excellent original condition , no damage or losses. Cleaned and waxed. A rare example of historical, religious and Judaic interest. (For an almost identical example see Christie's , London ,26/02/2013 , Sale No.8337 Lot.10 £1500) W 18" H 29" Jerusalem or Palestine c. 1870
