Description

Quality Antique Burr Walnut Serpentine Fronted Lowboy. This very good quality oak lined lowboy has been constructed using the finest burr walnut veneers dating circa 1900. With a serpentine shaped and crossbanded burr walnut top having a moulded edge sitting over one central oak lined drawer with two graduating drawers flanking to either side, each drawer being cockbeaded having fretted brass handles and central brass locks. Raised on walnut cabriole legs with hand carved shell to the knee this lowboy / writing desk is in showroom condition having been fully restored using traditional french polishing methods. The colour and veneers are of the best quality with very good proportions.
