Description

An oak cased cottage style Grandfather clock made by THOMAS HAY of BISHOPS CASTLE. He is recorded working there around 1775. A lovely slim-line clock with full trunk door typical of the Georgian period and made from superior quality oak. The case is beautifully polished throughout with a deep rich patina. A square top hood with reeded pillars and brass capitals. The 12" square brass dial has a silvered chapter ring and working crescent date dial. The gilded spandrels of 4 Greek Gods, a very unique feature. The 30 hour movement has just been fully overhauled by our BHI registered staff. Dimensions: Height 80" (204cms) Width (MAX) 17" (44cms) Depth (MAX) 10" (26cms) Trunk 11.5" X 7" (29 X 18cms)
