Description

This is a very fine example of a gents wristwatch made by the world renowned premier Swiss maker Omega. The watch is the calibre 26.5 manual wind movement and was possibly a military issue during WWII, as you can see it is in completely original condition. It has its original dial, hands and crown and unpolished stainless steel case. As you would expect the watch is fully marked on the dial, movement and case. The watch case measures 31mm in diameter not including the crown. Overall this watch is in outstanding condition and highly sought after by Omega collectors. The watch has been fully serviced by Alan Williams FBHI and is guaranteed to be a genuine Omega in all respects. It has been professionally overhauled, the process is highly detailed and meticulous. It is stripped down to its component parts and each part is examined under a microscope for signs of wear, any worn parts are replaced with genuine manufacturers parts. Each part is then thoroughly cleaned in a three stage ultrasonic cleaning process. The movement is then fully assembled using manufacturers approved oils and lubricants and is carried out in a clean room environment. The movement is then ch...
