Price

SoldItem Reference: SA369351*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

This is a superb pair of antique sterling silver serving spoons in their original case with matching hallmarks for London 1925 and makers marks for David Landsborough Fullerton. They come in the original presentation case which is probably why they are in such good condition. The bowls have lovely shapes and the handles have beautiful pierced work. They weigh a total of 81.3 grams and each one measures 7 1/2" (19 cms) long. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
