Description

A very elegant English Edwardian card case in sterling silver, perfect for business cards and perhaps a credit card or two. The very stylish design has a clear Art Nouveau decoration with organic stylized motifs. The silver is marked (slightly rubbed) for Birmingham 1907 together with a clear English design registration number (always a sign of quality) which also is for the year 1907. The hinge and catch work perfectly and when opened reveals a taffeta lined interior with a gusseted pocket each side for cards. Excellent condition, measuring 4" x 3" while closed.
