Description

Dated to 1855, this sampler is in very good condition and features fine needlework of birds, trees, plants, wild animals, churches, Victorian men in uniform and in the centre a young girl with her King Charles spaniel. The general feeling of the sampler leads to a belief that it was created by a young girl living in the colonies, possibly sub saharan Africa. Size: 17.25" x 15.75" (44 x 40 cms)
