SoldItem Reference: SA371435*Date of manufacture: Victorian

Description

Utterly charming Staffordshire pottery cow creamer dating from c.1850. Typical stance standing on a base with moulded flower and leaf design. The cow is transfer decorated in blue and white, a variant of the willow pattern. The stopper and base also have elements of the pattern and the tail, udders and face are hand painted in black, pink and red and a black band is painted around the base. It measures 7 1/4" long, 3 1/8" wide and 5" high. Condition is very good. 2 small nicks to the edge of the base but they appear glazed so may be original and one small chip to the underside of the stopper. No restoration and light surface wear. Price includes shipping within the UK. Worldwide shipping is available, please ask for a cost. Payment is accepted by Paypal, bank transfer or cheque. We wish to ensure all our customers are happy with their purchases and offer a full no quibble return policy for all items returned within 14 days (extended currently to January for Christmas gifts - T&Cs apply). Return postage is at the buyer's expense and packaging is the buyer's responsibility; items must be received back in the same condition in which they were sent. Follow us on Twitter @...
