Description

Stunning New Hall teapot in the new oval shape in pattern 921 with white flowers against a glorious mazarine blue ground with fresh green leaves, red stamens and fine gilded decoration in varying patterns all over. Dating from c.1800-c.1810. It measures 11" handle to spout, 5" wide and 6 1/2" high. Condition is very good: there is a hairline crack running from under the base and half way up the back to the left of the handle. No other damage, chips or frits and surface wear is minimal so superb as a display piece.
