Description

Pretty little Grainger Lee & Co pedestal baluster vase painted with Spring flowers in the manner of David Evans. Gilt swan neck handles to the shoulder, with flared neck, and sitting on a round socle on square foot. Marked in red script to the base and dates to c.1825. It measures 6 7/8" high and 4 1/2" wide. Condition is very good but the top of the pedestal has been restored. A little light rubbing to the gilding and some crazing to the foot. Minimal wear to the painted enamels.
