Description

A stunning Victorian burr walnut marquetry inlaid centre/dining table. The top having a thumb moulded and cross banded edge with a wide band of marquetry inlay set between boxwood lines. The inner section with particularly good book matched burr walnut veneers creating a spectacular star effect. The centre with further marquetry inlay of flowers, bands and foliage, all in various stained woods including satinwood, boxwood, mahogany and tulip wood. The base with a good turned and fluted column which is supported by 3 cabriole legs all having carved flowers to the knees and scroll toes with brass castors. This fine table is in pristine condition and has been re-polished in our own workshops using traditional French polishing methods. Maximum diameter 50.5"/128cm. Height 29.5"/75cm. Free delivery to most of mainland U.K.
