Description

A wonderful 19th Century stained pine church pew. Decorated with hand painted numbers to either side "14" and "82" and the original brass swing handle and tray which would have been used as a stick or umbrella stand. This is a very solid and sturdy antique piece, there are a few marks and scratches that add to the character of the pew, these can be seen clearly in the photograph and are to be expected with a well used and original antique. To the back of the pew is an unusual, small fall front cupboard, which would have been used for prayer/hymn book storage. Compact in size, this pew would add country style to any interior. c.1870 Length: (including tray) 49.5" (126cm) overall depth: 20" (51cm) overall height: 34" (86.5cm) depth of seat: 13.75" (35cm) height of seat: 16.5" (42cm)
