Description

An extremely good quality burr walnut wellington chest of drawers on plinth base. In excellent condition retaining all of its original turned wooden knobs with a fantastic burr walnut veneer and colour this Wellington Chest dates to circa 1860. Having a figured walnut top over six graduated mahogany lined burr walnut drawers each retaining two turned wooden knobs. The locking bar is also burr walnut on the inside again showing the high quality of this Wellington chest and attention to detail. Raised on a burr walnut plinth base with extremely good and rare proportions making this a very practical and handsome piece of furniture. In excellent condition having been gently restored using traditional methods with a striking grain and colour.
