Description

Superior quality early C19th George IV period mahogany dressing table firmly attributed to Gillows of Lancaster. Fitted with 3 mahogany-lined 'cock-beaded' drawers with quarter dust-beads, original ring-turned knobs, with a 3/4 reeded-edge gallery up-stand. Standing upon finely reeded legs with a typical Gillow's pattern turned foot into a maker's stamped and patented top-quality brass socket castor. Exhibiting all the quality and design features of the Gillows workshops, executed in a finely-figured superior grade of mahogany. The reeded edges, reeded mouldings and reserve panels at top of the legs also a classic design feature of this much sought-after and lauded firm of Lancaster cabinet-makers. Excellent condition with only very minor marks to the top commensurate with age and use. W 42" H 30" D 23" England c.1825
