Description

C19th Chinese late Qing Dynasty carved hardwood centre/side or console table. Well-proportioned 'hongmu' oblong side table of free-standing form. The panelled top above a heavily-carved frame with stylised leaf/wave design resembling 'vitruvian scroll', joined by an open carved scroll-work frieze. Raised on slender, shaped rounded-section legs and shaped feet. A stylish, useful scale table of excellent quality and well-chosen grade of timber. Rich, deep, original patination and colour. Ideal for use in a hall or reception-room setting. No damage or repairs, waxed and cleaned ready to use. H 32.5" W 38" D 17" China c.1880
