Description

Extremely good quality antique mahogany Serpentine chest of drawers standing on the carved bracket feet. This well proportioned stunning chest of drawers has a book matched flame mahogany veneered serpentine top set within a crossbanded border and rope edged mould sitting over a pullout brushing side with Dutch drops handles. Below which are two over three graduated mahogany serpentine oak lined drawers with cock beaded edge and brass swan neck handles each having central brass escutcheons. This fine quality antique chest of drawers has canted corner and blind fretwork sides with moulded rope edge bass raised on fabulously carved acanthus leaf bracket feet. A lovely quality chest with a fabulous colour in excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods. This pretty chest of drawers will work in most rooms of the house.
