Description

A fine quality William IV tilt-top breakfast, or supper, dining table. Made from a fine grade of solid mahogany with attractive veneers in the cross banding to the top. It has a great depth of colour and rich patina. The top edge and column are decorated with a gadrooned border, redolent of the period. The central column base spreads into a quadraform base with scrolling feet that terminate in their original brass castors. The top of the table can be tilted up when not in use. This practical table will easily seat 6 people. It is offered for sale in excellent condition, sturdy, and ready to go straight into the home. dimensions: Width 148cms Depth 110cms Height 72cms
