Description

2 Sets of 6, 18th Century Clissett Style Elm and Ash Country Chairs This a very rare thing, we have 2 sets of these charming antique west Midlands Chairs 12 in all, they all have elm plank seats and with spindled backs, one set has 3 spindles and a double top rail the other has 4 turned spindles. These 2 sets have been together for about 100 years as far as we can ascertain so it would be a shame to part them now. The chairs are sound, some of them show signs of old woodworm as to be expected in chairs of this age. This does not affect the structure in any way and enhances their authenticity. The seats of the chairs are 17" high, the backs are 35" high and they are 18" wide across the front MG31.
