Description

19th.c. Pine housekeeper's cupboard dresser c.1887. Standing 8'7" tall with a breakfront rack with two door centre cupboard fitted with shelves and slides. Over a long dresser base with nine drawers of graduated depths arranged around a centre cupboard. Moulded cornice, panel doors and large white porcelain knobs. Unusually the piece is actually signed on the rear by the maker, one John Robertson and dated September 1887. Very good condition. Would make a fine shop fitting. Note whilst the base is in one piece the rack splits into three for ease of delivery. Dimensions: width 99", depth 22½", height 103".
