Description

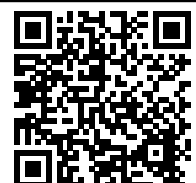

A stunning little vintage English jewelry or trinket box made from sterling silver standing on three elegant legs. The shaped lid is covered in a pink guilloché enamel showcasing the star-burst engine turned decoration below; very Art Deco. The lid fits well and when opened, reveals the gilded interior. The silk and velvet lining is original and intact although worn, but rather the original than having been replaced. The silver has a full English hallmark for Birmingham 1929 together with the makers mark for Bravingtons Ltd. Excellent condition, measuring 3" in diameter x 2" tall.
