Description

A fine quality Antique French mahogany parquetry topped freestanding table with cast ormolu mounts. This very attractive side / occasional table dating to circa 1880 is finished to all sides making it able to stand in the center as well to the wall. The shaped top having a decorative inset parquetry veneer in choice mahogany cuts enclosed by a mahogany crossbanding with rounded protruding corners over a moulded freeze drawer with central foliate ormolu casting. Each corner also having an inset ormolu cast being supported by four tapering and reeded legs. This fine quality and attractive table is in excellent condition having been hand French polished using traditional methods retaining its lovely warm colour.
