SoldItem Reference: SA378204*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

The perfect size to pop into a bag and take along with you, and looks wonderful while on your desk top. The handle is made from English sterling silver, the hallmark struck underneath the enamel; this example marked for Sheffield 1929. The enamel is one of the most sought-after colours, a wonderful deep lilac, with a bright shiny patina showcasing the engine turning below. The nickel framed glass is of course new, creating an undamaged magnifier with a superb magnification. Excellent condition 5" in length with a glass diameter measuring 2".
