Description

Fabulous early 19th.c. Welsh oak cwpwrdd deuddarn or two piece cupboard c.1810. A superb example of the form, the top boasting original turned droppers and three superb ogee panel doors. Divided into two cupboards, the lockable right hand door hides a delightful original fitted interior of arched pigeon holes and three small drawers, whilst the cupboard behind the centre and left hand doors has shaped shelves. On the original base unit with three drawers over a large two door cupboard also with raised and fielded door panels and the same shaped shelves as the top. Bracket feet, oak panelled sides, original floor and backboards. Excellent colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops.
