SoldItem Reference: SA380381*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

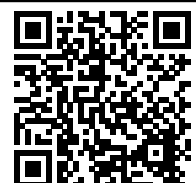

A fabulous and top quality pair of antique English silver napkin rings, a good gauge and weight of silver. Top and bottom is beautifully decorated with a cast reticulated or pierced border. What makes this pair particularly special is the addition of an engraved crown and the date 1902, these were clearly made for a special celebration of some kind to commemorate the Coronation of Edward VII on August 9th 1902. One is hallmarked London 1900 and one London 1902, both also have the initials HA for Henry Atkin. Lovely condition measuring 2" in diameter x 1 3/8" thick.
