Description

Antique Housekeepers Cupboard, Larder Cabinet Bookcase Linen Press Wardrobe 1860 This is an antique continental (possibly Austrian or Flemish) panelled housekeepers cupboard dating to c.1860. Striking in form and scale and beautifully constructed and carved in beech with a blond finish, this cupboard conceals an adjustable pine and dowel shelving system for a variety of uses: press cupboard, wardrobe, larder, bookcase. Raised on a moulded plinth base, the six field panel front features stop ended detail with beautifully carved geometric frames around central domed cartouches; the outside pair containing inter-woven initials 'CL' & 'ML'; the left end panel featuring a '1' in similar style. Triple brass 'H' hinges are fitted to the doors which close with an exposed, tactile, brass twist catch. Above, the crown moulding is a delight with deep dentil moulding above decorative geometric bracketing. Extremely solid, this piece will dismantle by means of a series of sturdy bolts for transportation and access. A fabulous panelled cupboard, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Height: 195cm (76.75") Width at Crown Moulding: 206cm (81") Width ...
