Antique Marble Top Mahogany Cylindrical Cabinet

Description

This original antique marble top cylindrical mahogany cabinet is in good original condition & I would date it to around the 1840-60 period. This is quite a rare item & also very versatile. It could be used as a bedside cabinet, or a stand with storage. The central section along with the door is flame mahogany. The door has a working lock & inside is one shelf. The marble top is original to the piece & just sits loosely on top. There are a few old markings & indentations, but these only add to the overall character of this delightful piece. Diameter - 15.8", 40 cm Height - 29", 74 cm
