Description

This antique walnut cocktail cabinet is of tremendous quality & is in good original condition. The doors & drawers are burr walnut with some beautiful figuring, especially on the doors, which also have etched brass hinges & escutcheons. This cabinet has stunning carving all over & between the shaped legs, so please enlarge the images to see the quality of this particular feature. The inside of this cabinet is nice too, with a mirrored back & base, plus shaped shelves. I would date this cabinet to around the 1920-30's period.
