Description

Tall antique oak stacking bookcase, which I think is made by Globe Wernicke, but I can't see any labels inside. It's solid oak, with 5 leaded glass door sections, plus a top section & a bottom drawer section. This bookcase is in very good condition & all the doors work fine. They simply lift up & slide back inside each section. I would say it was made in the 1920's & every section lifts off separately. The reason I say it's a Globe Wernicke is that I've had the exact same model many times in the past with the label inside. Width - 34.3", 87 cm Depth - 12.5", 32 cm Height - 64", 163 cm
