Description

Remarkable suite of Art Deco office furniture c.1930. Comprised of a very impressive desk, side table, filing cabinet and pair of armchairs all in mahogany and sparkling burr walnut. Fabulous machine age design with fluted edges and legs and exceptional original brass handles. The whole suite is in excellent condition, having been cleaned and polished in our workshops. Desk Star of the show is the very large double sided kneehole desk. 10 drawers to the front plus two shallow cupboards hidden in the rear. Symmetrically arranged burr walnut veneers across the top, sides, front and rear. Mahogany corners with crisp fluted detail, mahogany mouldings and plinth. Retaining the original oversized brass modernist handles. Superior quality with mahogany drawer linings and six lever locks. Unusually for a desk of this period the top has holes for telephone cables. Keys supplied. Dimensions: width 66", depth 42", height 30". Side Table Very elegant two drawer side table. Matching the desk with the same symmetrical burr walnut veneers, mouldings, fluted corner detail and handles. Raised on slim tapering and fluted legs. Dimensions: width 48", depth 24", height 32".
