Description

A wonderful Victorian butter dish in English silver plate complete with a separate underplate. Both the plate and dish are beautifully decorated with engine turning to appear like basket weave. The dish has a handle each side and the lid is mounted with a charming Cow figure. The underside is fully marked for the silversmith, Thomas Harwood and Sons, this mark used between 1864 and 1896. The inside of the dish is lavishly gilded. The tray has a diameter measuring 6 1/2"; the dish spans 4 1/2" handle to handle and stands 3 1/2" tall.
