Description

Victorian mahogany chiffonier bookcase with glazed top Here we offer to you this bookcase made in the 19thc. It has the very good feature of rounded corners that make the item look softer. The bookcase was made in 3 sections, that make it very easy to move around the home. The glazed cabinet top has 2 doors that open to reveal adjustable shelves. The base fitted with 2 drawers and double panel doors that open to reveal an interior with a shelf. The brass handles are original and are set in the lovely moulded drawer front. The whole has extra features that put this in the upper quality, including very unusual sliding bolts that secure the doors in place.
