Description

A charming antique nest of chinoiserie quartetto tables dating from circa 1900. In a faded black/dark green lacquer, decorated with dragons to the tops and sides, with shaped and pierced end supports, and standing on dragon carved feet. A very stylish nest of tables but showing plenty of signs of age and wear with lots of cracking and splitting to the surface of the lacquer. Some slight give to the joints, but steady enough to be useable. Construction/Wood: Japanned Wood Condition Report: Lots of age, wear and surface cracking and splits to the lacquer (see photos). Some slight give to the joints, but steady enough to be useable. Faded finish.
