Item Reference: SA388223

Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

A superb and early example of a silver tablespoon in the Hanoverian pattern, dating from early in the reign of George II. The spoon is bottom marked (hallmarks above the reverse of the bowl) and has engraved contemporary initials to the reverse top of the shank. Spoons from this era are becoming increasingly scarce and the condition and gauge of this wonderful example makes it rather rare. P&P contribution £7.00 UK £14.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no holes or splits. The bowl is in superb condition. Hallmarks :- Pinched but readable. Date :- London 1734. Maker :- John Wren I. Length :- 21 cms.
