Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

An unusual set of three silver teaspoons in the sought after Onslow pattern. These early examples are bottom marked (marks above the reverse of the bowl) and have fluted shell bowls. Good collectors items. P&P contribution £8.00 UK £12.00 Worldwide Condition :- Very good, with no dents or holes. Each spoon has slight size and shape variation, appropriate with being hand made. Hallmarks :- Each spoon bears only the Maker's mark and Sterling Lion (as all small flatware items did, dating from this period). The marks are poor, with only the Maker's mark showing well enough to read, but present enough to verify that they match. Date c1740. Maker :- Thomas Jackson I. Length :- 11.5 cms.
