Description

Very stylish & comfortable pair of Swedish Art Deco satin birch armchairs, in good original condition & dating from around the 1930's period. They have ribbed backs, coil springs, plus satin birch arms & legs. These chairs have just been imported from Sweden. They have been French polished & then re-upholstered to a very high standard. You can view these armchairs in my shop, but I don't think they will hang around for long, because they are a bit special.
