Description

Large mid C19th Japanese Imari porcelain vase. Impressively-scaled ,highly-decorative vase painted with the bold colours and gilding of the Imari pattern and palette. Of tapering octagonal form , with peony and chrysanthemum-type flower-head design decorated body with vignette panels of vines, grapes and 'Oriental' fantasy landscapes. Striking combination of design and colours ,with strong cobalt blues, reds, gold and with green highlights. A stunning 'tour-de-force' example of Japanese porcelain at its most exuberant and flamboyant best. Wonderful decorative vase , which alternatively could be fitted and wired as a lamp-base. No cracks or damage to the body , minor historic repair to one facet of the raised neck(shown). H 25" Dia.(widest) 17" Japan c.1860
