Description

Large 18th Century Carved Walnut and Oak Cassone, Marriage Chest or Carved Coffe. This is a lovely old piece, and is in remarkably good condition for its age, the coffer comes from either Spain or the South of France. The Cassone has 3 tree of life carved panels, these are decorated with substantial Geometric Mouldings, it stands on a deep moulded plinth. The lid has a large Key Hole on the top and an Iron Escutcheon, when the lid is closed the box is locked. There is a very elaborate iron work on the underside of the lid, the hinges, handles and lock were probably made by a gunsmith, they are decorated and in full working order, and there is a candle box inside, and of course we have the key. The cassone is 54" long, 22" deep and 27" high. MG86
