Description

A wonderful example of a Victorian sterling silver box in a cylindrical form, these are the most perfect boxes for Q-Tips or the circular cotton pads, if you wanted to put this piece to work that is; or simply sit back and enjoy its beauty. The top is particularly interesting with an all-over repousse or embossed decoration, the lid having a central vacant cartouche. The lid fits perfectly and when removed reveals a rather grand and luxurious gilded interior. Both base and lid are hallmarked for Birmingham 1895, together with the maker's initials H.M for the silversmith, Henry Matthews. A super highly decorative box measuring 3" tall with a maximum lid diameter measuring 3".
