Description

This is a very grand early nineteenth century Sheffield silver plated 6 cup egg cruet dating to around 1820. It is a beautiful shape with a heavy applied moulded edge and standing on 3 decorative and heavily worked feet. The cups are complete and entirely original with gilded interiors and it comes with 6 spoons that probably didn't start life with the set but they came with it and they match very well. Heavy and really solid construction in superb condition with a tall central carrying handle. It measures 8" (20 cms) across x 7 1/2" (19 cms) tall to top of handle. Overall there is no sign of plate wear on the stand however there are some minor areas of wear to the cups where they have been handled regularly. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
