Description

An antique silver Omega pocket watch and chain, circa 1910s. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the Omega name and is protected with an inner hinged cover which has details of medals won at the Parisian Grand Prix in 1900. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are Continental hallmarks for 0.900 silver within both of the case backs. The case is unusually but nicely detailed with a sunburst design to the back and a generously milled edge. The early Omega mark is also inside the back cover. The plastic lens is in good order. The signed white enamel dial has a couple of short faint hairline cracks at the bottom but otherwise looks good. The Breguet style hands in a blued steel are a particularly handsome feature. The watch comes on a sterling silver chain which measures 31cm long including the T-bar and the clasp. PRICE INCLUDES WORLDWIDE POSTAGE
