Description

An Outstanding, Large Cast Original Victorian Garden Iron Urn This Large and imposing Cast Iron Urn probably came from a Victorian Cemetery, it has been cherished in a London Garden for over 70 years, no wonder when you can see the superb patina of the piece The urn has survived with its pineapple topped lid, it has huge Rams Horn handles on either side while the front and back have death scenes, with Putti and a falling soul The original finish of the urn is not obvious, I can see some red substance next to the iron (red oxide perhaps) and the general overall colour is very ages and weatherworn green which changes in colour when it is wet This is a very heavy piece it is not easy to move and may require some strong help or lifting equipment to place it in your garden SR126 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, to see all of our current stock please visit our web site at www.elmgarden.co.uk Delivery times vary from 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option. In the unlikely event you wish to return an item you should contact us immediately We will then arrange for you to return it to us at the buye...
