Description

A superb silver condiment dish from the early reign of George III, with cast rim and four tassel feet. This superior piece is of excellent gauge silver, with a gadrooned border, oval shaped body and fluted detail. The interior is fully gilded. Mid 18th Century silver is becoming increasingly scarce and this example is a good find, usable and decorative. P&P contribution £8.00 UK £15.00 Worldwide Condition :- Very good, with no splits or dents. Hallmarks :- Softening but readable. Date :- London 1762. Maker :- Henry Corry. Length :- 7.75 cms (Bowl). Depth :- 6.5 cms. (Bowl). Height :- 5 cms.
